Marienkirche

Hainholz, Germany, 1910

This protestant church in Hainholz at the outskirts of Hannover was built in 1828 at the site of a former catholic pilgrimage church, incorporating the choir of the original church which dates back to the 15th century. It is named for the miracle-working statue of Mary of the first church.

This version of the model shows the church around 1910 with the final version of the tower, which had been reconstructed in 1895.
